THANK YOU

Washington State University Masters Swimming has been doing the Brute Squad event for the past three years with a great deal of success. It has always been a fitness event we do as part of our regular swim practices in November and December. Each year there is always a lot of chatter about which order to swim the events and when to schedule the swims. There is also a certain amount of persuading to get some of the rookie swimmers to give it a try, of course no stop watch is involved. Some of these rookie swimmers have accomplished the task—the Butterfly may not have been pretty, but they finished the 200 yards.

been pleasantly surprised by the interest from across the country.

This year we thought we would toss it open to anyone who wanted to participate via a postal event. We had no idea how much participation there would be, and we have

There were 113 of you who entered the event, and we thank you for your participation whether it be in the fitness or the competitive division. All of you who swam this event are hearty individuals. We plan to host again this coming up fall, and encourage you to tell your fellow swimmers to join in on the fun.

All the best for 2007, and we hope to see your entry at the end of the year.
